

Eurasian Journal of Business and Economics

---

This issue (vol.12, no.23) of Eurasian Journal of Business and Economics (EJBE) is dedicated to Prof. Dr. Dzharkynai Musaeva, a long time editorial board member of the journal, and to her valuable contribution to science.

Sadly, she passed away in Bishkek, in December, 2018. It is with profound sadness to hear that Prof. Dr. Musaeva passed away. We would like to present our deepest condolences to her family, relatives, colleagues, and students.

Dzharkinay Asanovna Musaeva - Doctor of Economics, Professor, graduated from Moscow State University named after M. Lomonosov, member of the Fulbright, TEMPUS, Salzburg Seminar, etc. Her scientific and educational experience is 44 years. Professor Musaeva was recognized for her studies in economics particularly her researches in transition economics, sustainable economic development, agrarian development and international economics. She supervised and participated in the implementation of more than 30 international research projects. Professor Musaeva has released 7 monographs, over 70 scientific research publications, prepared 10 candidates of sciences. She underwent repeated internships in the USA, France, Russia, Austria, Poland, Bulgaria, and Taiwan. She was serving as an editorial board member of Eurasian Journal of Business and Economics since the first issue.

In addition to her achievements in science, Prof. Dr. Dzharkinay Asanovna Musaeva was a devoted wife and mother, gentle colleague, dedicated professor.

We appreciate her contribution to quality of our journal, worthy advices, on time and accurate paper reviews.

The scientific community loses a distinguished scholar, who was highly respected; it is a great loss for all of us.

